ORINDA SUN

Vol. XI, No. 31 — Lafayette — Orinda, California — Friday, October 16, 1953 — Ten Cents

ORINDA INTERCHANGE project's first phase—burning, clearing and grubbing on the south side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard, just west of the Crossroads—is under way, with the Orinda Fire Department keeping a sharp eye on this necessary preliminary work. "Boy, what I could do with that in my fireplace!" Assistant Fire Chief Allen Winsor (left) remarks to Fireman Roland Brault, who stands appropriately on one of the logs to be removed by the contractors.

Pin-Ball Gambling Back; Police to Act

Illegal multiple-play, pin-ball machines were back in Orinda and Walnut Creek this week, despite the fact that operations were shut down less than two months ago by law enforcement officers.

When notified, Walnut Creek Police and County Sheriff's Deputies moved in again and said that the gambling devices would be on the way out by today.

In Alamo and Pleasant Hill, as in the remainder of Contra Costa County, except Richmond, pin-ball gambling continued, having never been stopped.

Sheriff's Inspector Ray L. Stoffels said that these operations will be checked also.

STOFFELS SAID that his department is shutting down multiple-play pin-ball operations wherever detected. Asked how illegal machines could have been put back in Orinda, he said that the area had not been checked for over a week and a half.

Asked how often Sheriffs' Deputies check on pin-ball operations throughout the county, Stoffels said that officers try to investigate about once a week.

As has Sheriff James N. Long, Stoffels indicated that deputies check only those multiple-play pin-ball operations which are reported.

IN WALNUT CREEK, Police Chief John Jordan said that he had not been aware of renewed pin-ball operations of an illegal type.

Wednesday he said that his department would order all illegal machines removed.

Mayor Joe Bell said, "It's the Chief's job to enforce the law . . . that's all there is to it."

Bell added, "If they (bar and restaurant owners permitting illegal pin-ball gambling in their establishments) don't like it, they can come to the City Council and ask for a change.

EARLY THIS WEEK the familiar multiple-play pin-ball machines were once again prominently displayed in the same bars and restaurants from which they had been removed early in August.

Authorities report that the machines are owned by companies operating out of the East Bay. They are placed in bars and restaurants where owners give permission.

The multiple-play type of pin-ball machine offers players the chance to insert numerous coins before shooting a game. It takes coins just about as fast as a slot machine.

Multiple-play machines have been outlawed in Alameda, San Francisco, San Diego, Los Angeles and other counties in the state.

FRANCIS COLLINS, Contra Costa County District Attorney, has declared multiple-play pin-ball machines illegal.

Although his deputies have an order to shut down multiple-play machines, according to Stoffels, Sheriff Long has made no public statement on their legality.

Prior to the August shut-down, pinball machines operated throughout the local area for years.

Operations have never stopped in the remainder of the county where the total annual "take" is estimated to be in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

This is true of all areas, except Richmond, where a local city ordinance prohibits operation of multiple-play machines.

Interchange Job Starts; Area Being Cleared

Work on Orinda Interchange by Oakland contractors Frederickson and Watson and M&K Corporation has already begun.

Under way at present, according to State Highway District Engineer J. P. Sinclair, is burning, clearing and grubbing along the south side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard, just west of the Crossroads.

This work was described by Sinclair as part of the contract and as a necessary preliminary to actual construction.

"The burning, clearing and grubbing is about 50 per cent completed," he said. "It was started on September 21. It should take about two or three weeks more."

AFTER COMPLETION of this preliminary activity, bridge work and installation of drainage culverts on both sides of the highway, but mostly on the south side, will be started, it was stated this week by Don Young, State Highways Division resident engineer at the project.

"The heavy grading work is scheduled for next spring, depending, of course, on the weather," Young said.

"Then the cloverleaf approaches will be built."

YOUNG, WHO HAS a crew of 10 state engineers under him at the site, reported that the old Bradley's Market building on Brookwood Road was dismantled and carted away last weekend, to make way for the south cloverleaf.

The Shell service station, the bus-waiting shelter and the Cross Roads Restaurant are scheduled to be removed from the north side of the highway by November 1, Young said.

THE CONTROLLED burning is being carefully watched by the Orinda Fire Department. Fireman William H. Dutro explained:

"The area being cleared will all be filled in for an approach to the freeway and cloverleaf. That will be one of the places where you turn off to go to Moraga.

"The state requires that all wood be removed before the area is filled. That will prevent sinkage. If the wood is left there, it rots, and as it does the fill will settle."

Simmons to Tell Interchange Plan Tuesday Evening

Albert E. Simmons, assistant district engineer for the State Division of Highways, will discuss the plans and schedule of construction of the Orinda Interchange at the general meeting of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation Tuesday night at Acalanes High School.

The federation's first membership meeting of the fall will be held in the school cafeteria and will start at 8 o'clock.

According to Chairman Elliot J. Hartman, Simmons will outline the various phases of construction and will explain how traffic congestion will be kept to a minimum.

Hartman emphasized the importance of this meeting to residents of the area, especially to those commuting by bus or private car to and from the Bay Area.

He stated unusual interest in the meeting had already been evidenced and urged the general public as well as civic group representatives to attend.

Mother's Club To Hold Dad's Night

Father's Night! The Orinda Mother's Club cordially invites all fathers to attend their first general meeting of the 1953-54 season.

Joseph Sheaff will be the speaker of the evening. His topic is "Report on the School District" which should be of great interest to all parents.

1,000 Workers Start Monday On United Crusade Drive

The biggest door-to-door sales campaign in Diablo Valley's history will get under way Monday when more than a thousand men and women will begin calling on their neighbors to "sell" them the story of the United Crusade, say spokesmen.

"Sales manager" will be Albert T. Handley of Danville, over-all chairman of the fund-raising drive in the residential area. "This sales force will be selling a product in which they believe strongly," Handley said.

"It is a 'package deal' of 115 health and welfare services for people — young people and old people, sick pople, homeless people, and troubled people — all of the East Bay area.

"The price of these services has been set at a minimum of $3,242,498 — of which the men and women of Central Contra Costa County must raise $158,000." Handley said. "I am confident that we of Diablo Valley will do our part."

IN THE RESIDENTIAL drive, only those homes will be called upon which do not display the window sticker indicating that a contribution has been made where the resident works. No one who has contributed at his or her place of employment will be asked to give again during the residential campaign, Handley said.

Serving as residential chairmen in the communities of the Diablo Valley are the following: Walnut Creek, Mrs. Ogden Kiesel; Pleasant Hill, Rev. Phillip A. Solbjor; Lafayette, Mrs. John Sexon, who will be assisted by Robert Eschleman as vice chairman; and Orinda, Mrs. William H. Brailsford Jr. Handley will also serve as residential chairman of Danville.

The residential campaign which begins Monday follows closely on the heels of an intensive 10-day "give-where-you-work" drive in commerce and industry, among public employees and professional groups, in district businesses (those that employ less than 10 people),) among the faculty and other employees of public, private, and parochial schools and colleges, and among those men and women who privately contribute larger gifts in advance.

Only one month has been given to all the volunteers working in the campaign to raise the $3,242,498 goal. The Crusade formally opened on October 6 and will close officially on November 6.

DIABLO VALLEY has a far-flung and well knit Crusade organization under the chairmanship of Duncan H. Knudsen, assisted by Orville W. Jones as co-chairman, say spokesmen.

Although this is the first year that Diablo Valley has participated in this united fund-raising effort, Knudsen and Jones have brought together a group of community-minded men and women whose efforts, Handley believes, will assure success in this drive.

The entire Diablo Valley United Crusade structure, in addition to the general chairman and co-chairman and the residential chairmen, is as follows: Commerce and Industry Department — Clinton Newell, chairman; Advance Gifts — Ford M. Tussing, chairman, and Bernard Rocca Jr., vice chairman; District Business — Walnut Creek, Charles A. Bowers; Danville, Alcert T. Handley; Lafayette, Matt Connolly, and Orinda, Merle Brown.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES — Post Offices, Laura Mallory; County, Claude McPhee; Municipal Employees, V. Vecki, and Fire District, Ellsworth Wood; Associations — Dentists, Dr. Norman Betaque; Education — Mrs. Frances Dent,

County, State Interested in SN Facilities

County and state officials expressed interest this week in possible future acquisition of Sacramento Northern Railway facilities if, as now appears likely, the line is abandoned by its present owner, Western Pacific Railroad.

Interest in possibility of Contra Costa's obtaining the Sacramento Northern roadbed and right of way, described by County Road Commissioner Victor Sauer, was much more definitely stated than was the interest of state highway officials in use of the Sacramento Northern tunnel for the Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

The statements by Sauer and by State Highway District Engineers J. P. Sinclair and L. A. Weymouth followed the Oakland City Council's passage last week on first and second readings of an ordinance to grant Oakland Terminal Railway a franchise for four-tenths of a mile of track on Union Street, from 12th Street to Fifth Street.

FINAL READING and vote was scheduled for November 10, 7:30 p. m. The vote on first and second readings was 6-2, with Councilman Lester E. Grant and Howard E. Rilea in opposition.

If the franchise is granted, Western Pacific plans to ask the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to abandon some six miles of Sacramento Northern tracks in Oakland and about nine miles of SN tracks in Contra Costa County, from the county line to West Lafayette station.

This request will be made at the same time that Oakland Terminal Railway applies to ICC for authorization to build the Union Street tracks.

"WE'VE WATCHED the situation with a great deal of interest," Sauer said. "A couple of weeks ago, at our office's request, the Board of Supervisors notified Western Pacific that, if Western Pacific plans to abandon the Sacramento Northern tracks in this county, we're interested in the possibility of obtaining the roadbed.

"That opens the door to further negotiations. We'd like to be in a position to discuss the matter with Western Pacific. There are parts of that right of way which would have quite a bit of advantage to our county road system."

SINCLAIR SAID that the State Division of Highways is "studying the whole matter of location of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway" and that the Sacramento Northern Tunnel would be included in such a study "if a request is made regarding it."

However, he added that he personally knew of no such request.

"There's an awful lot of work to be done before actual surveys are made. Surveys will be made after we have further information on the route. After all, the projected Shepherd Canyon Freeway became part of the state highway system only as recently as September 9."

WEYMOUTH SAID the question is "whether it would be economical and practicable to use the Sacramento Northern Tunnel."

"We're looking at every possibility," he explained. "If the Sacramento Northern Tunnel has merit, we'll exomine it."

Weymouth stated that reconnaisance surveys are already under way, to determine the Shepherd Canyon Freeway route, but that instrument surveys are necessarily some distance in the future.

Chief topic will be the problem of excess water going into Sanitary District sewer lines, according to Secretary Campbell MacPhail.

Also, there will be a report on the committee's activities since its formation last winter.

MacPhail said that letters are being sent to improvement clubs throughout th Sanitary District area, urging them to send representatives to the meeting.

Acalanes Trustees Tell of New Plan For School Here

A revised $2,019,900 building program for the Acalanes Union High School Dsitrict which envisions a Las Lomas High School larger than Acalanes and a new Orinda High School with 650 pupils before July 1, 1957, was submitted to trustees Tuesday night.

Superintendent Neil Parsons explained the program is only tentative and will probably be revised many times. "It's been revised three times in the last six months," he said.

He explained that the district needs a long range program for planning purposes, but it will be, of necessity, revised just as often as circumstances indicate a need for revision.

The program calls for:

BY JULY 1, 1954: Las Lomas High School serving 760 pupils with 26 classrooms and two shops. New building and equipment during the year will include five classrooms, a nurse's office, counseling room, teachers room, shop wing and shop yard, an outside assembly area, a locker building, bleachers for the gym, furniture for classrooms, front parking and landscaping, outside bleachers, five tennis courts, a science room conversion and a swimming pool.

COST OF THIS construction is estimated to be $373,000. For the Orinda School curb and gutter grading, drainage and a track is to be finished. Cost, with a contingency fund, is to be $57,000.

Income to pay for the building includes $160,000 carry over from the previous year, $300,000 from bonds, and $200,000 from taxes, a total of $660,000.

Total cost of the 1954 program is $430,000, leaving $230,000 to be carried over until the next year.

Items included in the program but not budgeted for any definite time include $125,000 for addition to Las Lomas gym and $50,000 each for Orinda and Las Lomas music rooms.

In discussion, trustees asked Kump Associates, school architects, to look into other ways of solving the gym need at Las Lomas, feeling the cost too high.

BY JULY 1, 1955: Las Lomas is to serve 925 pupils with 33 classrooms and two shops. Building and equipment will include seven classrooms, furniture for last years' additions, and a court. Cost is to be $152,000, including a contingency fund of $14,000.

Orinda is to serve 175 pupils with 11 classrooms. Construction will include 11 classrooms, a gym, an intercom system, bleachers ,two locker buildings, paved physical education courts, and parking area for 50 cars.

Utilities and site improvement, track and sprinklers, turf, furniture and equipment and a service road. Estimated cost, including $55,000 for contingencies, is $595,000.

Total cost of the year's program is $747,600. Income includes $230,000 carry over from the previous year, $400,000 from bonds and $180,000 from taxes, a total of $810,000. $62,400 is left to be carried over to the next year.

BY JULY 1, 1956, Las Lomas will handle 1120 pupils with 39 classrooms and two shops. New building and equipment includes six classrooms, a court, furniture and equipment, a baseball field and a court at a cost of $127,000.

Orinda will handle 400 pupils in 17 classrooms. Construction includes 6 classrooms, outside bleachers for 500, a paved physical education court, furniture and equipment, and a baseball field.

Including a contingency fund of $22,000, the cost will be $243,400. Total for the year is $370,400.

Income includes $62,400 from carry over, $300,000 from bonds, and $200,000 from taxes, a total of $562,400. This leaves $192,000 to be carried over to the next year.

BY JULY 1, 1957, Las Lomas will surpass Acalanes with 1290 pupils in 43 classrooms, two shops and two gyms .Acalanes will have 1260 pupils in 39 classrooms, two shops and two gyms.

Las Lomas construction includes four classrooms, and furniture and equipment. With a contingency fund of $7,000 cost is to be $82,000.

School Bus Times Still Not Fixed; Maybe Next Week

Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff said this week that school bus schedules are expected to be finalized next week.

There has been some shifting of schedules in attempts to coordinate the grammer school and high school bus schedules, he said, which has resulted in confusion.

At present all buses are running 20 minutes later than originally scheduled and all schools are opening and closing 20 minutes later than the originally announced times.

However, he pointed out, this is not a final schedule as of this week. He expects to be able to announce a complete schedule which will not be revised next week.

Acalanes High School opens at 8 a.m. and closes at 2:45 p.m. with bus pickups from 7 to 7:45 a.m.

Joseph Sheaff Will Head Polio Drive This Year

With the 1954 March of Dimes campaign scheduled to begin on January 1, Francis L. Wilson, Contra Costa County Chairman for the drive has announced that Joseph L. Sheaff, 147 Camino Don Miguel, Orinda, will again lead the polio fund campaign in Orinda.

EMPHASIZING THAT the need for funds is now greater than ever before, Wilson in making the appointment stated that the drain on the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has not relaxed.

In spite of a record collection of $139,436.59 in Contra Costa County this year, an increase in the number of cases of polio especially in the upper age brackets, makes imperative that the 1954 campaign be a success.

WILSON ALSO called attention to the recent announcement made by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis regarding the development of a new vaccine which will be tested on some 500,000 school children before the next polio season begins.

The new vaccine innoculations, which in laboratory and field tests shows definite promise of ending the threat of polio once and for all, will cost in the neighborhood of $7,500,000.

Add to this the Foundation's Gamma Globulin program plus its other services, and the need for funds becomes readily apparent.

George Andrews Suffers Attack

George Andrews, 59, owner of the Village Licquor Store, 3541 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, suffered a mild heart attack September 27 and is recuperating at his home at 25 Acacia Drive, Orinda.

According to his son Don, Andrews is "doing swell and will be up and around again in a week or so."

Don said that his father was not taken to a hospital, but that he has been resting in bed at home.

Don has been operating the store for his father.

'Droppeth as the Gentle Rains . . .'

How About Monorail Commute System? Rapid Transit Needs; Name 7 Directors

A talk on monorail and election of seven new directors highlighted the fourth annual meeting of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association at Acalanes High School Tuesday night.

Thomas I. St. John, vice-president of the Monorail Engineering and Construction Company, told the audience of 70 that monorail would be an effective solution to the rapid transit needs of this area.

THE NEW DIRECTORS, proposed by the nominating committee and unanimously elected for two years, are:

Arthur Weatherbe of Orinda, LeRoy Sowers and John E. McKirahan of Lafayette, Marge Allendorph, Fred Danner and Gordon Bigelow of Walnut Creek and Bob McCle[illegible]and of Monument.

Directors remaining on the board for another year are:

Gladys DeLesche, Leonard Davis and Charles Wood Jr. of Orinda, Victor Johnson of Lafayette, Walter Roberts of Walnut Creek, Giles Wall of Danville, Harold Jaechens of Pleasant Hill and G. E. Nichols of Gregory Gardens.

OUTGOING DIRECTORS who have completed their two-year terms are:

Fred Folliard of Orinda, Dudley Thickens and Francis Schrupp of Lafayette, Del Armstrong of Walnut Creek and Ester Anderson of Alamo.

Officers for the coming year will be elected from the ranks of the combined group of seven new members and eight carryover directors at a meeting tentatively scheduled for October 27.

ST. JOHN, introduced by President Dudley Thickens, prefaced his talk by observing that an average speed of 11 miles per hour was possible in the days of horsedrawn vehicles, whereas today, with automobiles having a potential of many times that speed, the maximum progress possible on heavily congested streets and highways leading through metropolitan areas is down to six miles per hour.

He declared that monorail cars could travel 60 miles per hour, suspended from overhead rails, unrestricted by surface traffic, making eight scheduled stops between Walnut Creek and San Francisco, yet completing the entire distance, including stops, in an elapsed time of slightly more than one-half hour.

HE PICTURED a system of overhead cars, with rubber-tired wheels encased in a box girder, suspended from rails supported by cross-beams over upright columns, with the floor of the cars some 16 feet above street level.

St. John estimated that the cost of such a system to serve the nine-county Central California area would be somewhat in excess of one million dollars a mile, but quickly pointed out that this is only about one-tenth of the cost of city subway installations.

His talk was illustrated by motion pictures taken recently of the Wuppertal monorail in Germany, which has been in operation since 1901. The speaker also showed a

Poison Oak and Lots of Smoke

Have you been scratching lately? Are you a commuter? If so, the reason might possibly be the burning that has been going on along Mt. Diablo Boulevard in preparation for the Orinda Overpass.

It seems that there was a good deal of poison oak on those hills, and that it has been burned along with the rest of the brush by the contractors.

When it burns it smokes, and as those who are susceptible to poison oak know, smoke is a good way to catch it . . . in a big way.

Assistant Fire Chief A. P. Winsor commented that there was a lot of poison oak, and that they were burning it all right, but that he had had no complaints as yet.

Might close your car windows as you drive by. That is, if you have been scratching lately.

Highway Budget Delay Expected

The California Highway Commission will hold its regular monthly meeting in Sacramento Thursday but, contrary to previous expectations, it was learned this week that the 1954-55 budget is not on the agenda.

According to Chairman Elliot J. Hartman of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation and Manager Iona M. Booth of the Contra Costa County Develpoment Association, the state highways budget for 1954-55 is not expected to be announced until the November or possibly the December meeting of the commission.

HARTMAN SAID that Assistant District Engineer Elbert E. Simmons of the State Division of Highways told him last week that the budget may not come up until the commission's November meeting or even later.

Mrs. Booth reported that Joseph Judson, chairman of the Development Association's highways committee and liaison man between the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and the commission, had informed her that the budget is not on the agenda for Thursday's session and that he thought it would be the subject of the November or the December meeting.

REASON FOR the lateness, as compared to previous annual budget meetings, is that greatly increased revenues necessitate additional time for the planning of the 1954-55 allocations, according to both Simmons and Judson.

Judson will attend the Sacramento meeting Thursday and if called on will make another plea for funds for further work on the Diablo Freeway and other projects considered vital for this county, Mrs. Booth said.

Hartman stated that the highway

Moraga Highway Subseal-Job Ordered

First step in improvement of Moraga Highway under the county road bond program was authorized by the Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

On recommendation of County Road Commissioner Victor Sauer, the board approved plans to subseal the concrete surfacing on Moraga Highway from Glorietta Boulevard to Moraga townsite, at an estimated cost of $15,000.

Sauer explained yesterday that actual paving of the road is scheduled for next spring.

"IN THE SUBSEALING," he said, "hot asphalt is poured underneath the surface. When this cools and hardens, a membrane is formed.

"This gives a firmer base for the paving which will follow."

The subsealing will be done by county forces, the road commissioner said.

"THE MAJOR WORK on this project will be the paving next spring, of course," he continued.

"The subsealing is a preliminary but essential part of the over-all job."

Heart, Cancer, Polio Units Deny Any United Crusade Affiliation

Misunderstanding and misrepresentation were charged this week by three local charity agencies as they issued statements that they would not receive benefits from the United Crusade fund campaign now under way.

Organizations were local units of Heart, Cancer and March of Dimes.

L. E. Butler ,county campaign coordinator for the March of Dimes of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said there was "misunderstanding on the part of some members of the United Crusade" as pointed out that the polio group was not a crusade member.

In a joint statement the Heart and Cancer units said:

"It has been falsely implied that the American Cancer Society, Contra Costa County Branch and the Contra Costa County Heart Association are affiliated with the East Bay United Crusade.

"Not one cent given by a resident of Contra Costa County to the East Bay United Crusade will help meet the county quotas of the above agencies. Instead of benefiting, the American Cancer Society, Contra Costa Branch and the Contra Costa County Heart Association actually would be deprived of the full amount of any contribution made by Contra Costans to the East Bay United Crusade.

"The Contra Costa County Heart Association will have their annual drive in February as they have had in previous years. The American Cancer Society will have their drive in April — We are taking this means of reaching you to ask that you budget your charitable contributions now — to help us in the spring."

Christian Science Sermon Will Be On 'Atonement'

Considering the subject "Doctrine of Antonement," the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Chistian Science churches on Sunday will include this verse from II Corinthians:

"If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (5:17).

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, this correlative passage will also be read:

"The real man being linked by Science to his Maker, mortals need only turn from sin and lose sight of mortal selfhood to find Christ, the real man and his relation to God, and to recognize the divine sonship" (p. 316).

Junior Statesmen Attend Confab

Acalanes student members of the Don chapter of the statewide Junior Statesmen met with students from other Bay Area high school chapters last week in convention at Burlingame.

The convention, meeting as a model democratic legislature, studied and passed resolutions on national and state problems including a debate on racial segregation in public schools in which the Junior Statesmen decided that a program of definite but gradual elimination of segregation was preferable to outright elimination by law.

Other problems studied included outlawing the Communist Party in the U.S., and the voting rights of residents of the District of Columbia.

The legislative session was followed by a dinner and dance.

Newly-elected officers of the Don chapter of the Junior Statesmen are John Bohn, president; Kathy Hunter, vice president; Claudia Mattioda, secretary; Trudy Meyer, treasurer; Celia Gray, student council representative; Thora Oss, special secretary; Kathy Simmons and Charles Schoor, supervisors; Ilse Dix, publicity. Robert Wilde and Miss Duth Dyer, faculty advisors to the Acalanes chapter, accompanied the Dons to Burlingame.

CCJC Costs Are Highest in Area

The highest per pupil cost in Bay Area schools in 1951-52 was that of Contra Costa Junior College, according to figures released by the San Francisco Bay Area Council, Inc.

The cost was $587 per student, compared with a nine bay counties junior college average of $450.

Districts in Contra Costa County spent an average of $210 per elementary pupil and $359 per high school student.

Grand Jury Investigation of County Junior College Operations Sought

Entire operations of Contra Costa Junior College may be investigated following a heated meeting of the district's Board of Trustees Monday night.

O. J. Wohlgemuth of Ygnacio Valley, trustee and grand jury member, climaxed the three hour meeting with a promise to request such an investigation.

HEAT WAS generated at the meeting as Superintendent Drummond J. McCunn charged that Trustee Elton Brombacher of reflecting on his integrity and Brombacher demanded respect for his position.

The exchange started as a $129.75 bill from a Pittsburg accounting firm for certifying results of the trustee election May 15 was resubmitted to the board by McCunn.

The bill had been previously disualified as improper by District Attorney Francis Collins, and Brombacher questioned its resubmission as the flare-up occurred.

McCunn said that he intended to see the bill paid, if he had to do it out of his own pocket.

BROMBACHER also questioned the employment of sports writers as laboratory technicians. After discussion they were ordered dismissed.

He also said he opposed attendance at conferences called by the State Board of Education by junior college personnel.

During the meeting, Wohlgemuth complained that a number of people were taking "pot shots" at the junior college, and said he would ask the grand jury to investigate the entire operation.

Therapy Center Fund Campaign Gains Impetus With Start of Bowling Contest

Good news from several communities gave impetus to volunteer workers in the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center Building Fund Campaign during the past week.

A collection among faculty members of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District netted $362 for the building fund according to an announcement by Ferdinand Diel, chairman of school participation in the district and Dr. Ferd Kiesel, a leader in the faculty project.

IN GREGORY GARDENS, a lone postman, Mr. W. F. Parker, unable to participate in the postmen's porch light campaign the evening of October 1, undertook his own march October 8 and visited all families along his route whose flaming porch lights signified their desire to assist in the project. His effort resulted in a collection of $121.50.

Over $500 was realized from a hole in one project sponsored by the Tanagers Auxiliary Unit of Orinda last week at Diablo, Orinda, Contra Costa and Pittsburg Country Clubs.

ALTHOUGH NO participant scored a hole in one, all contributed to one of the worthiest drives in the area, helping speed the way to a new Therapy Center for the physically handicapped.

Members of the Orinda Orioles, another Therapy Center auxiliary group, are enthused over the mounting entries for the benefit bowling tournament which will "kick-off" tomorrow in bowls throughout the east bay.

BOWLING ESTABLISHMENTS which will stage the benefit are Berkeley Bowl, Pittsburg Bowl, Vogue Bowl in Pittsburg, Richmond Bowl, Uptown Bowl in Richmond, Antioch Bowl, and Paddock Bowl in Pacheco.

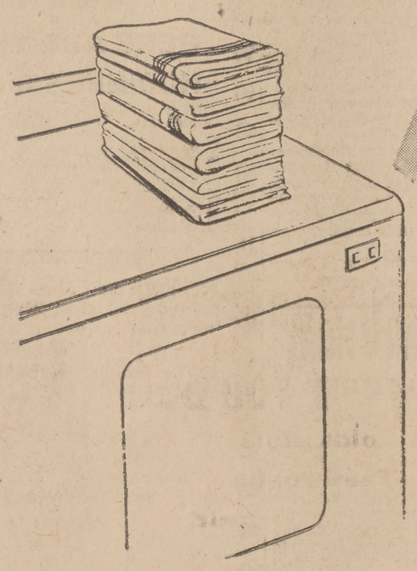

Four hundred valuable prizes have been gathered to attract the thousands of bowlers who will score strike after strike for the Center Building Fund.

Mrs. Tom Moore, chairman of the committee arranging the affair predicts that it will be the greatest project of its kind ever staged in the east bay area. Entries are being received from Sacramento, Stockton and as far distant as Reno, Nevada.

Nursery School Group Hears Authority On Child; Discuss Moraga-Side Site

A cooperative nursery school is a real advantage in preparing the pre-school child for life, Dr. Jane Costallanos told members and visitors of the Orinda Nursery School meeting at the Community church Wednesday night.

Dr. Costallanos, who is Coordinator of Family Life Education at Contra Costa Junior College, spoke at the first general meeting of the school year.

A specialist on the pre-school child, the speaker received her doctorate at Stanford, has taken additional graduate work at the University of California and has been on the staff at Mills College as well as participating in the Mills summer workshop in child development. She is the co-author of a book, "Children's Observations."

THROUGH NURSERY school the young child learns to express himself creatively as well as become a participating part of a group, lessons that will enable him to avoid many of the stresses and strains of later life, according to Dr. Costallanos.

At the business meeting preceding the speaker Mrs. Russell Gilwee, president, welcomed the group and outlined the year's program planned. Mrs. William W. Scott, vice-president and program chairman, announced that the annual potluck supper and workshop night for fathers as well as mothers is scheduled November 12.

Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, member of a Moraga side residents' committee charged with exploring the possibilities of opening a nursery school in the Lutheran church on that side of the Crossroads ,reported that although the church management was willing to rent quarters to the nursery school, certain residents in the area were unwilling to give their permission for the church to do so.

THERE IS A long waiting list of Moraga side residents who could conveniently be served by a nursery school in their area, but a few residents whose property adjoins the church were unwilling to sign the waiver necessary before the church could rent the building to the school.

The objecting residents allegedly were afraid of noise and damage to their gardens, and that if permission were given for a nursery school, possibly later on a parochial school might be established. Although, Mrs. Farrell said, there are in fact no plans for a parochial school, nor have residents nearby the Orinda Community Church been inconvenienced in any way by the school now existing there.

IN VIEW OF THE objections, however, it was voted by the Nursery School to table plans for a Moraga side branch until some other facility can be obtained. Information as to any available facility in the area would be glady received, Mrs. Farrell said.

Mrs. John S. Edwards Jr., chairman of the Orientation committee for new members of the school, reported that the next meeting for the course will be held Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth was appointed to represent the Nursery School on the Civic Affairs Council of the Orinda Association.

At the social meeting following the speaker, Mrs. Paul Slattery was hostess, featuring a Halloween motif, and assisted by the Mesdames James MacDonald, William D. Douglass, Donald Tibbetts, William Penney, Fred Crawshaw and Donald O'Neal.

Commuters Hear About Monorail

reel of colored film depicting a model monorail installation which has been proposed for future consideration between San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles, which included closeups of improved switching mechanisms designed to facilitate the transfer and routing of cars at terminal points.

THE MANY questions asked pointed up the greatly increased interest on the part of the average commuter in some form of rapid transit.

Among those in attendance were Elliot J. Hartman, chairman of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation; Howard Foulds, local realtor, and State Assemblyman Donald Doyle.

DOYLE REVIEWED briefly the history of rapid transit bills and similar measures and assured the commuters that he would see that their interests are not overlooked in any future state legislation which may affect them.

A financial report for the past fiscal year, given by Treasurer Fred Folliard, indicated that the association is in a very favorable financial condition.

McKirahan, reporting for the service committee, indicated that there is still very heavy overloading on many bus schedules.

HE STATED that a new set of load studies is being conducted by both Greyhound and the Public Utilities Commission to establish new peak loading times following the end of the Key System strike.

It was brought out that during the strike the morning peak loading pattern moved to an earlier hour because of long delays leading to the Bay Bridge approach and the necessity for many having to leave home from 15 minutes to one-half hour earlier than usual.

McKirahan said he hoped that some minor schedule changes might relieve the situation and indicated that Greyhound has been showing more cooperation recently in trying to help solve some of the service problems.

However, he added that relief is usually overdue after the need arises.

Expect Delay on Highway Budget

federation is not planning to send representatives to the commission session.

"WE'VE BEEN UP there three times this year, and I think we've effectively presented our views on the urgency of speeding construction of the Diablo Freeway and on the need to build the Diablo Freeway before the Shepherd Canyon Freeway is constructed," he said.

He pointed out that because of increased revenues resulting from new legislation, the Highway Commission "will be spending about twice as much for 1954-55 as was allocated a year ago."

Guild Group Hears Ceramics Teacher

Mrs. J. F. Conley of El Verano, with her mother, Mrs. Hazel Benning as co-hostess, entertained Section 4 of the Orinda Women's Guild on Monday evening.

Highlight of the evening was an illustrated lecture on ceramics by Mrs. Edmund Chambers of Walnut Creek. Mrs. Chambers is a talented teacher in ceramics and ther creative arts and despite her young family gives private instruction in her home.

Al Culp Named Class President

Al Culp was elected president of the sophomore class at the College of the Pacific in Stockton last week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Culp at 559 Miner Road in Orinda.

A pre-dentistry major, the 19 year old is a member of Rho Lambda Phi fraternity and the rally committee. He came to Pacific last year with Roger Lynn who recently moved from Orinda. Both boys played on the COP freshman football team, and Lynn is an end on the varsity squad this fall.

chairman, and John Moiso, co-chairman; Public Information and Speakers Bureau, George "Herb" Macey, chairman, and Ian McLaughlin, vice chairman.

These committees with their hundreds of volunteer workers are the nucleus of the organization which makes possible the work of the 115 United Crusade services in the East Bay Area.

In Central Contra Costa County there are three United Crusade Advisory Boards — one each in Diablo Valley, Concord, and Martinez. These boards are made up of representative citizens, and have gained the endorsement of the community on behalf of the United Crusade principle.

Each of the three Boards invited all the agencies serving their areas to participate in this year's United Crusade, and the agencies in the Crusade are those which accepted this invitation.

DIABLO VALLEY is participating in its first East Bay United Crusade, and the East Bay United Crusade is participating in the first Bay Area United Crusades. Through the joint efforts of the men and women of the East Bay, San Francisco, and Marin and San Mateo counties, a total of $10,243,680 will be raised it is reported.

In a message to the campaign workers and to all men and women in Diablo Valley, Duncan Knudsen spoke of this Crusade as "an individual sacred trust." "It is up to us," he said, "to see that our youth, our blind, our helpless children, and those others who by some mischance of fate cannot adequately care for themselves, receive the care and the guidance that they need.

"What would happen to our community if none of us cared? It's up to us as individuals. If each of us leaves the responsibility to 'the other guy,' there will be no one to relieve the burden of those less fortunate than ourselves. This way — the United Crusade way — is the democratic way — the American way!"

Discussions on Sacramento Northern Plans

REGARDING THE Sacramento Northern roadbed, he observed that the state would probably not be interested in that "unless it coincided with the most economical route."

"That would require quite a bit of study," he said.

SAM FORDYCE, executive assistant to the president of Western Pacific, recalled that WP had first placed facts about its Sacramento Northern plans with Colonel John H. Skeggs, then assistant state highway engineer for District IV of the State Highways Division, about two years ago.

B. W. Booker, Skeggs' successor, was reported by Weymouth as ill and was unavailable for comment this week.

THE CONTRA COSTA County Board of Supervisors was informed by the California Public Utilities Commission this week of the steps required for Western Pacific in WP's plans to abandon its Sacramento Northern tracks.

PUC listed the OTR franchise and the ICC authorization as prerequisites to abandonment.

Eavesdropping with Eve

By EVE BAILLIE

When I heard that a community chorus was under way in Orinda it seemed to me that you would all like to know "the power behind it," as well as the purpose and aims of such a group.

Accordingly, I interviewed the new music teacher in the Orinda Schools, Miss Sara Sabelman. Miss sabelman is a charming, dark haired young lady possessed of much enthusiasm and love for her work. After graduation from the College of the Pacific at Stockton, where she was a member of the a capella choir, she became the music director at Santa Rosa Junior High School where she taught mixed choral groups and a boy's chorus of about 40 voices from the 7th and 8th grades.

TWO OF HER groups were parcipants in the State Music Festival in Berkeley where they both received top ratings. I became aware that Miss Sabelman would certainly give her "all" to Orindians participating in a vocal group.

When asked why she thought Orinda should have a chorus she said that a community, such as Orinda, with high artistic appreciation and active participation could have a very fine chorus.

"But why a chorus?" I asked. To which she replied, "If singing is a pleasure at all, it can be an even greater one in a chorus which makes possible a wider variety of expression."

IN SPEAKING of the type of music the chorus would have she said, "As many different types as possible, ranging from spiritual to folk songs, barber shop harmony, and show tunes to light opera and classical choruses." She very emphatically said that no experience in singing was necessary and that anyone who loved to sing was urged to come and participate.

The Community Chorus will meet on Monday at the Orinda School auditorium and thereafter it will meet the first and third Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. As t othe future plans of the chorus Miss Sabelman said, "If the community indicates the desire to hear a chorus, a concert will ultimately be given."

In concluding the interview, Miss Sabelman again expressed her desire that all interested Orindians attend the next meeting.

Around Orinda

Around Orinda these Indian summer days the leaves are turning, and we are all leaving the casual days of summertime and getting back in the fall rush of things to do and places to go.

Julius Speyer of El Gavilan Road is one of the men who rejoice in the opening of hunting season. However, Mr. Speyer's first hunting trip, with John Clark of Oakland and Dale Lambert of Walnut Creek, resulted in nothing but a battle against the cold climate of Alpine county.

They claim the air was so frosty that steaming hot coffee actually turned cold the minute it was poured into a cup.

A MORE PLEASANT atmosphere prevailed at the Orinda Country Club last Saturday night whtn Mr. and Mrs. Speyer were among the alumni of the Class of 1943 from Acalanes High School celebrating their 10th reunion.

Their former class president, Leo Colman, was the speaker of the evening, and also present was Donald Doten, their student body president in the "good old days." Mr. and Mrs. John Cataline were among the guests at the dinner. Credit for getting together the old classmates and their teachers belongs to those named, and to Mrs. Jack Miller.

This new column is being written by Mrs. Cathy Bedecarre, a member of the Orinda Junior Woman's Club. Proceeds from the column will go to a fund which the Orinda Juniors will use on Community Projects.

Mrs. Bedecarre, who lives at 10 Vianne Court, has two children, Jay, 3½, and Dianne, 1. Her husband operates a French laundry in San Francisco.

This column business is not entirely new to her, as she turned out material for the Oakland Tribune when she was attending the University of California.

ANTHONY YRIBERRI of Meadow View Road hopes for "fowl" weather as he heads for Sacramento and the opening of duck hunting season this weekend. Ms. Yriberri will be busy during his absence, since she is in charge of the Orinda Juniors rummage sale coming up next Thursday. She is urging all her friends to clear out their old Christmas ties to make way for new ones and hopes anyone with the desire to dispose of discards will call her at Orinda 8779.

Young Paul Yriberri just celebrated his fifth birthday with a party for neighborhood friends and became the very proud owner of a two-wheel bicycle, which makes him officially a "big boy."

The Raymond Curries of Tara Road have hosted a number of small fry this past week when Gail celebrated her sixth birthday and Stephen his fourth.

Several out-of-state visitors are enjoying the California sunshine in Orinda these days. Mrs. Walter Weiss of Quincy, Ill., is spending a month at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter E. Estes of Van Ripper Lane.

MRS. GRACE STANTON of Utah is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Beth Egertson, a new resident of Orinda now living on Hillcrest Drive. Mrs. Trthur Roberts, from Parsons, Kan., is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. David Brain of Overhill Road.

Recently, Mrs. Brain and Mrs. Ray E. Kline were co-hostesses at a baby shower for Mrs. Clarence Unnivehr. The party was held at Mrs. Kline's home on Tara Road and the 24 guests are still talking about the lovely table decorations which helped make the evening such a pleasant one.

"LEADING A DOG'S LIFE" is pretty rough, especially if you happen to be a Lhasa Apso. Tibetan terrier, that is, and that's what "Ping" the pet of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Louis, happens to be. Ping is three years old and has never become reconciled to her competition, the Louis' year old daughter. So, she is now convalescing in Hidden Valley from a nervous breakdown.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. M. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Specht attended the premier performance of "The Robe" in San Francisco.

A new arrival in Orinda is Richard Frank Bailey, born on September 12. Richard is the fifth child for the John Baileys of Miner Road, who now have fours sons and one daughter.

Dr. William B. Leftwick's daughter Susan celebrated her sixth birthday recently at a party where all her little friends dressed like their mothers, complete with lipstick, etc. Two other young ladies who also had October birthdays are Betsy Gregg and Ruta Hagman.

ALTHOUGH MOST of us are busy at home with football games, opera season and all the other fall events, there are still some Orindans traveling about.

Mr .and Mrs. Charles Malone of Loma Vista are vacationing in Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jansse of Camino Sobrante are in Portland and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Grimes of Mariposa Lane have recently returned from New York and points East. Mrs. Grimes and their daughter, Linda, visited her parents and then Mr. Grimes joined them for the final three weeks of their two-month visit.

Mr .and Mrs. John Epperson of Miner Road welcomed their third child, Peter Ross. Peter, named for his maternal grandfather, was baptized at Santa Maria Church and was guest of honor at a family gathering after the christening.

Mrs. W. Lincoln Flies on Trips

Some of us in Orinda live a life to be envied. Such is the one of Mrs. William Lincoln of Kittiwake Road. Soon after the birth of her twin daughters in May, bringing the total to five childen in the family, she flew alone to Hawaii to relax completely and visit with friends there.

She left her little brood in the good and competent hands of Mr. Lincoln who is employed by Pan American Airways. And very recently a friend called to talk to Mrs. Lincoln only to be told that she had just left with three of the children to keep a luncheon date in Los Angeles also via Pan American.

Cub Pack 225 Has Indian Theme

Cub Pack 225 held a pack meeting in the Moraga School last Friday night at which all dens were represented 100 per cent by the parents.

The Cub Scout theme for October is Indian Summer. The Indian theme was carried out in each den's skit and in the boys' exhibits.

Den 1 opened the meeting with a pow-wow around a campfire and closed the meet by singing America.

Five new boys were given their Bobcat pins. They were Richard Stephensen, Thomas Ballard, Frankie Thaxter, William Pariani and Glen Tobias.

Pack 225 will hold a cake sale at the Sprouse-Reitz store Friday, October 23. Everyone is invited to come in and satisfy their sweet tooth.

New High School Plan Revealed

Orinda will serve 650 pupils with 26 classrooms. Construction includes eight classrooms, a cafeteria, furniture and equipment, parking facilities, a stage, tennis courts and a service road.

With a contingency fee of $38,000, cost is estimated at $389,900.

THE TOTAL COST of $737,000 will be paid with a carry over of $192,000, bonds at $330,000, and $215,000 in taxes. This leaves $265,100 for carry over to the next year.

In other action the trustees decided that education about the influence of alcohol and narcotics should be given in ninth grade social studies classes and senior problems classes, both required courses for students.

The trustees took under advisement a request by Contra Costa Junior College officials that the district buses gather junior college students and transport them to a central point.

PERTINENT FACT FOR THOSE of you not in the know, lady columnists should not play in ladies golf tournaments and/or that is why we have no column for you this week.

This business of getting up in the morning—pushing the family out of the door before they are ready, giving the kitchen one horrified look and resolutely closing the door, scampering into golf shoes, sticking a couple of tees behind your ear and leaving; then, several hours later, staggering at a seven-times-slow-motion pace into the grocery store, grabbing a package of frozen peas and some ice cream, waddling home and collapsing with your toes turned up is a process not calculated to fit into the schedule of the average housewife.

Anyone for a round of golf?

THAT WENT ON FRIDAY, October 2 and the following Tuesday, Thursday and Friday for the Women's Annual Fall Handicap Tournament with the following results: First low net, Mrs. H. R. Merriam; 2nd low net, Mrs. R. B. Douglass; winner of first flight, Mrs. W. M. Noble; runner-up Mrs. G. A. Somers; defeated Mrs. H. R. Merriam; 2nd flight winner Mrs. J. W. Small; runner-up Mrs. T. P. Bacon; defeated Mrs. J. P. Thomas; 3rd flight winner Mrs. R. C Diehl, runner-up Mrs D C Elder, defeated Mrs. R. N. Slingerland; 4th flight winner Mrs. G. D. McElhinny, runner-up Mrs. W. H. Kilgoe defeated Mrs. R. H. Bolman; 54 Medal round winner Mrs. H. A. Donovan; Consolation Mrs. Neil Taylor

After the struggle there was a delightful luncheon, the trophies were dispensed, then everyone went home and staged an in-gathering of the loose ends.

Fascinating new family in Orinda. Mr. and Mrs. William Schulberg with Jo-An and Paul have moved here from Indonesia. They have also lived in Holland, Japan, New York and undoubtedly others but by that time we were too impressed to remember anything except the pronunciation of their name which is gargle-Heughl-growl-bairqhque-snort.

At the moment they are tucked away most attractively, with their lovely furniture and dishes which were rescued from war ravaged Indonesia, in the guest cottage of friends.

The stories they tell of events in Batavia, Sukagawa and Amsterdam, as well as their obvious appreciation of this new area, certainly make them an interesting couple to know.

Home from the national chain store convention in Chicago the Milton Selbys and James Norths. Mrs. Selby reports that daughter and son-in-law, the Dick Karchners and two children are settled in Salt Lake.

Also returned from a trip East Mrs. Hannah Wilkin who visited friends and relatives. She reports that the weather in the Chicago railroad station in September is hotsy totsy indeed.

TEA PARTY YESTERDAY at the home of Mrs. Peter Ley (Jeannie St. Hill).

O Sole Mio, or words to that effect

Do you enjoy singing in the bath tub without your clothes on? Do you think you could have just as much fun singing in the school auditorium on alternate Tuesdays fully dressed? If so you will be charmed to hear about a choral group being organized under the expert guidance of Sara Sabelman who is musical instructor for the schools.

Mrs. William Henning is organizing the group so if you would like to be part of it call her at Orinda 8795. The next meeting of the "Orinda Community Chorus" will be on Monday at 8 p.m. so—of you are in a vocal mood go along, without reservation, because no tryouts or training are required, necessary or expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lawrie entertained with cocktails before the Diablo Cotillion.

Mrs. Ralf Maki with Mark and Marsha have just returned from a motor trip to British Columbia.

Watson, my cap, pipe and spectacles!

JUNIOR G. MEN—PHOOY (is there an e in phooey—never have been certain). Anyway two local G. men can certainly knock off the Junior after doing a most adult bit of super-sleuthing and follow through on the treatment. Peter Telfer and Peter Lamb came home one day from school and noticed a truck dumping a load of scraps and building materials into that hallowed spot on the corner of Miner Road and Oak Arbor which the home owners have been diligently planting and paving with rocks for protection and beautification.

Righteous indignation set in so the two gentlemen raced home to their respective mothers to find out if permission had been given for such a dastardly deed—by whom, for what and to whom.

Of course, no one had, so Mother Lamb (Mrs. Woodburn K.) and the two G. men got in the car and headed for Sleepy Hollow where the truck was headed after the dump dilemma. Over the hills and through the valleys they went investigating trucks parked at new building sites but no luck. G. man Telfer deduced that the dumping seemed to be old materials so possibly it was working on a remodeling job—so—off to an older area and sure enough—unashamed and out in the open for all to see was IT.

THE MEN AND MOTHER LAMB pulled in their ears, hid inside their coat collars and hot footed it home to call the police. The truck, they noticed was reloading to repeat the same stunt—so they kept vigil at the spot until the policeman came and off they went for retribution, redistribution and restitution.

The truck had to remove, renovate and repay the damage to trees and shrubs. So, thanks to a couple of boys and an intrepid mother we find out that indiscrimnate dumping is against the law, so be careful from now on where you park your bubble gum.

That is all.

Episcopal Youth Plan Activities

With more than a dozen members of the Young People's Fellowship participating in the service, "Youth Sunday" will be observed by the congregation of St. Stephen's Episcopal church Sunday, at 5 p.m. at the Orinda Community shapel.

The young people will take over the liturgical portion of the service, as well as the reading of the psalm and lessons, Carolyn Demeter delivering the sermon for the day.

DISTRIBUTION of prayer books and bulletins, ushering and collection of the offertory will be performed by St. Stephen's teen-agers.

Rehearsal will be held immediately after the Sunday afternoon service this weekend.

At the first fall meeting of the Young People's Fellowship of St. Stephen's, requests were made by the members for speakers to address the group during the coming year.

THE NEW series will include the Reverend Vern Schwartzfager, "The Padre of Kid's World;" Malcolm Boyd, senior seminarian at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, who was formerly a business associate of Mary Pickford and Buddy Rogers; the Rt. Reverend William Fisher Lewis, Bishop of the Missionary District of Nevada; and speakers from the Narcotics Division of the State of California, and from the San Francisco chapter of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Members asked for a continuation of the program started last fall, "Making a Home" which dealt with the teen-ager's relationship with his parents and with his fellow - students.

FIRST EVENT planned by the Young People's Fellowship will be a wood-sawing session tomorrow at the new church site on Via Las Cruces, with senior warden Walter E. Christie supervising.

The group will convene at the church property promptly at 9 a.m. and will adjourn at 12:30 for a picnic lunch under the oak trees.

St. Stephen's Holds Baptism

Holy Baptism was the order of service for members of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda Sunday at the usual 5 p.m. time, with the Rev. Charles M. Hill administering the sacrament.

Meeting at the Orinda Community Church chapel until the completion of their own church on Via Las Cruces, the congregation of St. Stephen's heard their vicar speak on the sacrament of baptism at his sermon for this special occasion.

ST. STEPHEN'S choir appeared under the direction of Mrs. T. J. Fahay, singing as offertory anthem, "Sanctus" from Gounod's "St. Cecilia's Mass," with Stan Stidham rendering the incidental tenor solo.

Ushers were Arthur Johnson and Cltinton Easterbrook.

Acolytes assisting Mr. Hill in the service were Jimmie Hill, crucifer; David Brown, Jimmy Detling, Phil Martlett, Mike Bigeler and Sam Hubbard Jr.

AT A RECENT meeting of St. Stephen's acolytes, it was decided that the local group should affiliate with "St. Vincent's" the National Acolyte Guild.

On this occasion, the boys were divided into two teams, St. John's and St. Mark's, which will alternate from month to month in their service at the church.

On St. John's team, the captain is Jimmie Hill, with David Brown acting as lieutenant, assisted by Jimmy Detling, Phil Bartlett, Mike Bigelor, and Sam Hubbard Jr.

St. Mark's team is captained by Hugh Harris, with George Harrison as lieutenant. Gordon Fowkes, Arne Groennings, Lynn Hill, and Carl Lincoln will assist.

Clipper Club Plans 'Trick or Treat' Fun

The Clipper Club will hold a "trick or treat" Hallowe'en party Oct. 23 at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church.

Each persons is to come in costume, masked and bring a paper bag containing five items. These may be white elephants or articles costing not more than 25 cents, but at least two of the items must have some value.

The committee in charge, which promises an evening of good old-fashioned fun, consists of Evangeline and DeLoss Winkler, chairmen; Lucille and Floyd Hornibrook, Helen and John Gilmore and Ruth and Bill Mott.

Sermon to Deal With 'Spirit'

The pastor of the Shepherd-of-the-Valley Lutheran Church located right across the street from the Orinda Fire House No. 2 on the Moraga side of the Mt. Diablo Highway, will speak on the sermon topic, "Be Filled with the Spirit," at the 8 and the 4 a.m. services.

His text is taken from the writings of the Apostle Paul where he says, "Live life with a due sense of responsibility, not as men who do not know the meaning and purpose of life but as those who do. Make the best use of your time, despite all the difficulities of these days. Don't get your stimulus from wine but let the Spirit stimulate your souls."

The motion picture, "Martin Luther," has been acclaimed one of the outstanding pictures of the year.

The conflict of his religious struggle was an experience which schook the foundation of man's thinking. This experience is lived in this movie which will have a public showing starting October 28 at the Grand Lake Theatre in down-town Oakland.

Canyon Dr. Resident

Go to Church Sunday

St. Stephen's to Hold Youth Sunday

"Youth Sunday" will be observed at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church with members of the Young People's Fellowship conducting the major portion of the service at 5 p.m. in the Orinda Community Chapel.

Over a dozen teen-agers will participate in this unusual service for local Episcopalians. Jimmie Hill will take over the liturgical portion, Judy Dunn reading the psalm; Sally Ann Shipley, the First Lesson; Cathryn Elliott, the Second Lesson, and Carolyn Demeter delivering the sermon .

ANN SPARLING and Patricia Smith will take up the offertory. Ushers will be Bob Dwight, George Harrison, Dexter Wold and Peter St. Hill. Bulletins and prayer books will be distributed to the congregation by Sue Small and Cathie Simmons.

St. Stephen's Choir will appear under the direction of Mrs. T. J. Fahay, singing as offertory anthem, "The Heavens Are Telling" by Ludfig von Beethoven. The choir will also assist in the hymns "I Know Not Where the Road Will Lead," "The Day Thou Gavest, Lord," and "I sing a Song of the Saints of God."

Mrs. Fahay will play as organ solos, "Prelude in G Minor" by Bach, and "Postlude in C" by Cappelen.

IN ADDITION to the "Youth Sunday" program, the 30 young people comprising St. Stephen's Fellowship have launched an intensively active schedule for the coming year. Speakers will address the group at least one a month at the regular Sunday evening meetings, the series including the Reverend Vern Schwartsfager, "The Padre of Kid's World;" Malcolm Boyd, senior seminarian at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, who was formerly a business associate of Mary Pickford and Buddy Rogers; the Rt. Reverend William Fischer Lewis, Bishop of the Missionary District of Nevada; and speakers from the Narcotics Division of the State of California, and from the San Francisco chapter of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Members have asked for a continuation of the program started last fall, "Making a Home," which dealt with the teen-ager's relationship with his parents and his fellow students, including his problems in courtship and marriage.

First event on the WPF docket was a wood sawing session conducted Saturday on the new church property under the supervision of Walter E. Christie, senior warden.

After a productive display of teen-age muscle power, a picnic lunch was enjoyed by all working hands and the admiring feminine members of the youth group.

Rev. Fred R. Morrow and his student associate, Ray L. Welles, will cooperate in the conduct of the worship, assisted by the choir at 11 o'clock, under the direction of Margaret Popovich.

Daniel Popovich and Mrs. H. E. Hewitt are the organists. Mr. Morrow's sermon theme at the later hour is "This Is Missions."

At 9:30 the second half-hour will be devoted to adult discussion under the leadership of Miss Adena Joy who will continue the general topic of "Developing Self-Awareness."

Classes are held for children and young people beginning with the nursery class at the first hour and for children through the third grade at the second.

Under Mr. Welles' guidance, high school age young people hold their meeting from 6:45 to 8:45 Sunday evening, closing with chapel worship and refreshments.

Music for the two morning services includes: "Cherubim Song," a choral anthem by Bortniansky, "Prelude in G" by Hollis, "Abendlied" by Schultze, "Holsworthy Church Bells" by Wesley, "Sarabande" by Handel, "Toccato" by Mailly, and "Postlude in E flat" by Abernathy. Fine organ and choral music is one of the special attractions of the Community church program.

Baptismal Services Held for Youngster

Four generations, with two great-grandmothers present, participated in the Baptismal Service held last Sunday following the morning service of the Orinda Community Church for Christopher Wellman Wright, 5-month-old son of Elwood and Margaret Wright.

The Rev. Fred Morrow administrated the Sacrament in which Mr. and Mrs. Randall Cook stood as God-parents. "Chris" has two older sisters, Diana, 5½, and Susan, 3.

Food Sale Will Be October 31

Due to a mix-up in dates, the food sale of the St. Stephens Women's Auxiliary will be held at the Orinda Hardware store on October 31, instead of October 17, according to Mrs. Robert Bigler, president of the Auxiliary.

In preparation for the Christmas Bazaar to be held early in December, Mrs. Ida Zamloch, ways and means chairman, urges all members of the Auxiliary who like to sew to asist with the sewing at the home of Mrs. James Brown, 155 Las Vegas, at 10 a.m. on Thursdays.

Mormons Get New Teen-Age Teacher

Orinda Branch of the Mormon Church is fortunate indeed to procure the services of Prof. Neil K. Holbrook, extension editor at the University of California in Berkeley.

Holbrook will teach the teen age group of the Sunday School, which meets at Community Church each Sunday at 1 p.m. and in addition will plan their activity program for the coming fall and winter.

The author of many articles in national publications, Prof. Holbrook was awarded the Western Agricultural Writers' award for being the outstanding writer in his field in 1951. He has also written much national material about Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson and served temporarily as his speech writer.

Correspondent to Open Forum Series

John Morley, noted foreign correspondent and lecturer, will be the guest speaker Tuesday at the Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum's opening of its fifth anniversary year, at the Diablo Country Club.

Time of the initial fall program is 10:30 a.m. Coffee will be served from 10 to 10:30. Morley's talk is entitled "1953 World."

The Diablo Country Club will serve luncheon to members and guests if reservations are made by calling the club in advance of the program.

STARTED FIVE YEARS ago by a group of San Ramon Valley residents anxious to bring a cultural and cosmopolitan touch to the quiet suburban communities "on the Contra Costa side of the Tunnel," the Forum has grown as rapidly as the population, and members and guests have pronounced the annual series rewarding and stimulating.

Many of the original board of directors whose enterprise has given Contra Costa a Forum of its own are still guiding and contributing to the management of the affairs.

Among them are Mesdames John Blemer, Arthur N. Carlson, T. O. Edwards, Raymond Force Sr., William Hale Sr., Charles Morey Sr., Allen A. Morse, Hubert Prost and F. F. Thomas.

Also on the present board are Mesdames Samuel L. Abbot Jr., Reginald H. Biggs, Clifford Foskett, Stanley M. Friden and George J. Towle.

IN CELEBRATION OF the fifth anniversary year a series of special interest to Forum-goers has been arranged. In addition to the Morley lecture, the series includes Margaret Alexander Dunn, who will read a new Broadway play November 17, and the San Francisco Boys' Chorus, directed by Madi Bacon, for the Christmas tea on December 15.

Tickets for the series are $4. Single guest tickets are $1.50. Tickets may be obtained through Box 24, Diablo.

ASSISTING Mrs. Reginald Biggs, coordinator of Forum activities, will be Mrs. William Hale Sr., who has asked young matrons of the membership to act as hostesses.

They include Mesdames Malcolm Gompertz, C. W. Koch, William Huter and Philip Oreer.

Mrs. Jackson Calvin and Mrs. Howard Flanders are arranging decorations for the initial event, and Mrs. W. E. Boyd and Helen Cartwright will preside during the coffee period.

The public is invited to membership in this new series.

Mary Jo Hamrick, Richard E. Balch Wed in Quiet Rites

Mary Jo Hamrick and Richard Edwin Balch were married in a private ceremony with only close members of the family and intimate friends present September 25.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Hamrick, 529 Warwick Avenue, San Lendro.

Richard's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Balch, 1150 Brown Avenue, Lafayette.

Performing the ceremony was the Reverend J. McCarne and the bride was given away by her parents. She wore a powder blue tulle gown decorated with Florentine lace and a transparent yoke of tulle. Her bouffant skirt was of matching Florentine lace.

SHE CARRIED a cascade of stephanotis centered with orchids and had matching flowers in her hair.

The house was decorated in blue and white delphinium, while the fireplace and mantel were banked with magnolia leaves and blossoms forming the altar were flanked on each side with candelabra.

It was a candle light ceremony.

Miss Barbara MacDonald played the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" for the procession.

MATRON OF HONOR was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy E. Hamrick Jr. The bride's brother, Roy E. Hamrick, an attorney in Berkeley, did the best man duties.

The reception was held at the bride's home following the wedding.

The honeymoon trip included a week at the bride's family's cabin at Lake Tahoe and a stay in Yosemite, where they were joined by the groom's family.

The Balches are formerly from Southern California. Dr. Balch is associated with the Institute of Metabolic Research here.

THE NEW bride will continue to teach school in the Bay Area until Richard is released from the Coast Guard, probably in January.

The couple met in Honolulu where the bride was teaching at Punaho school.

Book Review Tea Guests Hear of Pandora Activities

Members and friends of Pandora Chapter of the Children's Home Society who attended last Friday's book review tea given by Pandora at Orinda Community Church received double inspiration.

Not only did they enjoy the book review by Mrs. Lloyd Truman and the social pleasure of the tea, but they also were impressed by the scope and nature of Pandora's activity on behalf of the statewide adoption agency.

In fact, this activity is the basis for the series of three book review teas (another will be given next month and a third will be given in December), the recently completed project of making bassinets for transportation of babies from foster homes to the society's clinic — and all other efforts of Pandora and other Children's Home Society chapters.

EXAMPLES OF how the Children's Home Society brings happiness to children and adoptive parents alike were cited this week by Mrs. James Lamberth, Pandora president.

"Last year a blind baby was born in our state, and the baby was turned over to a state adoptive agency which tried to place him in a home," Mrs. Lamberth said.

"Being unable to place him, the adoptive agency turned him over to another state agency as unadoptable.

"This agency in turn asked the Children's Home Society if it would take the baby and try to place him. The Children's Home Society took the child.

"ABOUT THIS TIME a man and his wife walked into the office of the Home (in Oakland) and asked to speak to the supervisor.

"The man started to explain that they had a blind child: as the supervisor listened to the stories of hardship involved in raising a handicapped child he was wondering how they were to place the one child they already had. But as the man's story unfolded it became apparent that this couple was asking the Home if it knew where they could find another blind baby to adopt.

"After all the proper steps and investigation had been taken care of, this blind baby had found his home, a father, mother and blind little brother, too."

MOST CHILDREN served by the Children's Home Society come directly to the Home as infants, but once in a while an older child comes through the devious lanes which lead to adoption.

Ms. Lamberth told about 4-year-old Mary Jo, who hasn't yet found her new home.

"Mary Jo recently came to the Children's Home Society," Mrs. Lamberth said. "She is a bright, attractive girl who has been living in boarding homes away from her parents. Her mother has decided that she has no place for Mary Jo, since she is unmarried and cannot provide a real home.

"Healthy and responsive in every way, this little girl is most appealing, but she carries a burden of concern about the many moves she has had to make in her short life and has an emotional problem which make make her placement a little way off.

"No wonder — for all in one day she had been separated from her boarding parents, whom she loved, and from her mother as well. The fact that she had been carefully prepared by the worker to move on toward a permanent home did not entirely soften the ache in her heart.

"ON THE DAY that she came to the Home she tried so hard to be brave that when the tears finally welled up she explained, "I'm not really crying; it's just the sun shining in my eyes." However, like other children with similar experiences, she was able to take comfort from her worker and respond to the loving respect that her new boarding parents prepared for her.

"Now she is moving rapidly toward her crossroads and will shortly meet her adoptive parents.

"Every step on Mary Jo's road toward her new home has been carefully prepared. There will be no new experiences to warp her. All aspects have been weighed and the Home has spared no effort to assure Mary Jo and ther prospective parents the greatest possible happiness."

"WHENEVER POSSIBLE, the Home favors early placement of children," Mrs. Lamberth stressed.

"This creates a more normal situation for both the baby and the parents, as early emotional ties are formed."

Tylers Return From Eastern Vacation

The Harl Tylers of Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda, have just returned from a trip East. It was the first in New York for Mrs. Tyler who made the most of it by visiting everything famous in that great city.

Once in an automat, the well known eating spots in New York, was a must on her list but where she says nothing can be had for a nickel anymore, not even the proverbial five cent cup of coffee.

They took in Greenwich Village and did the East Side too with all its quaint produce vendors lining the streets.

They were even able to run up to the New England states and enjoy the colorful splendor of that countryside which is not too unlike our own this time of the year. Last but not least she was able to join Mr. Tyler in a general meeting of the United Nations which she claimed was fascinating and certainly a privilege.

Football Time Brings Guys And Gals Out

By CAROLE HOLABIRD

It seems that just about everybodys is giving, or has given, or maybe even will give, a football party what with our Dons doing as well as they are.

Judy Miner is no exception either. Two weeks ago after the Pittsburg game (which you all know we won, natch) everyone gathered at Judie's.

That same night Barbara Muller had a slumber party for some of the junior girls, although half of them won't tell what they did. Anyway, a good time was had by all, and it must have been fun.

SOME OF the sophomore girls weren't sleeping then, either, because Sally Weidlein also gave a slumber (?) party. But, among those eating sandwiches and cake, modern dancing and playing volleyball in their pajamas were Sue Panella, Fay Cady, Patti Alford, Karen Jacobsen, Marlene Catella, "Bugs," Carole Holabird, Jane Seulberger, Roberta Miles, Loretta Scalenatti and Sally Anaclerio.

The next week, after the Alhambra game (which we also won, of course) Betty Haves gave an open house with practically the whole senior class there, among scads of others.

SHE HAD blue and white (there are other colors?) goal-posts set up in the yard and a large "A" and football over the fireplace. "Dons" in blue and white, natch, appeared over the buffet table, and just scads of people enjoyed the sandwiches, punch and dancing.

Barbara Stark had a party, same time, for most of the junior class, and of course, others, as any good party does.

Saturday night Joan Whalen and Sheryl Singer co-hostessed a party at Joan's in Lafayette. The fairly small guest list expanded quite a bit as the evening wore on, and it turned out to be another "open house." Lots of food and music were provided, however at times the music could not be heard over the singing of school songs. A good time was had by all.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON was the Sub-Deb Fashion Show. Lots of cute, smart, fall fashions were seen on the girls attending as well as on the models, Louann Pearson, Jane Rogers, Donalee Fey, and Jane Seulberger, were a few of them who could have been mistaken for models.

The new members of the Daphne Branch of the Childrens Hospital have been announced by Terry White, president. They are: Marcia Millu, Bev Wall, Barbara Stark, Elley Gardner, Cathy Greub, Pat Meyers, Donalee Fey, Gail Champion, Jane Haworth, Sue Johanson, Nancy McCrum, Kathy Vale, Rita Wood and Sally Pedder.

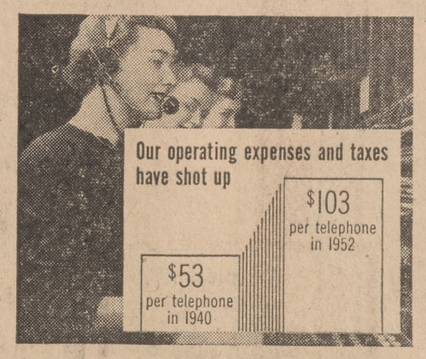

Buying and building the facilities needed to put new telephones to work now costs more than double what it did in the prewar period.

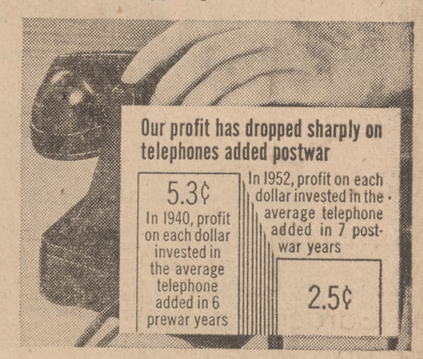

YOUR TELEPHONE'S NUMBER ONE ENEMY

How rising costs put a real burden on good service

Surprisingly, it isn't fire or storm or earthquake . . . your telephone's biggest problem today is the rising costs of the things we buy to provide telephone service—coupled with low telephone rates which have increased much less than the cost of the things we buy to run the system. New techniques and improved equipment have helped greatly to cut operating costs. But the pressure of high prices is unrelenting. And, since a financially healthy telephone system is so important to good service for you, we believe you'd like to be brought up-to-date on your telephone's biggest problem.

Up sharply are our costs of keeping the system running. Operating taxes, for example, have almost doubled—from $10 per telephone in 1940 to nearly $20 in 1952. Average wage rates of telephone people are more than double what they were in 1940. In fact, nearly everything we must buy to keep your telephone on the job costs about twice what it did prewar.

With our costs up so much more than our prices, the profit on the investment in facilities for each new telephone has been cut in half. And this is important to your service because it takes profits to attract investors' savings into the business to pay for new facilities needed to meet the continuing telephone demands of the growing Pacific West.

Despite our higher costs of building and running the telephone system, the economies we've made have helped keep your telephone a bargain. It carries your messages for just pennies a call.

Dons Meet Cougars At Albany Today

Third League Game for Dons This Afternoon

Having chalked up a 12-6 win over the Pitt Pirates and a 26-13 victory over the Alhambra Bulldogs, the Acalanes Dons will be out to maintain their undefeated league play record when they meet up with the Albany Cougars of Coach Craig Ortlieb at 3:30 p.m. today at Albany.

Today's game finds the Don eleven in no position to let down, as Albany has a high-scoring contingent that has two wins and two losses to date.

The Cougars' high-scoring offense has tallied two or more touchdowns per game, and the Dons' defense, which has been stout to date, will receive another stiff test at the hands of the fighting Cougars.

THE DONS HAVE made several shifts in personnel.

Larry Tate moves to right tackle, in place of Jim Hart, who is temporarily sidelined with a bruised knee.

Andy Fadelli, who has up to now confined himself to center play, doubles up as a left tackle and will probably see duty in both spots.

The Dons have improved their aerial and ground game each week but have as yet to take full advantage of scoring situations.

EACH TIME OUT they have bogged down on more than one occasion inside the 10.

Booming Fullback Ray Williamson appears to be ready for his best year, as he has literally run the opposition ragged with his line-smashing. This, in addition, has enabled the Don halfbacks to break loose whenever the defense tightened for Williamson.

Bart Ferro and John Conley give the Dons a one-two punch in the quarterback slot, with both doing some nifty throwing, so that the Dons are leading the league in aerial tosses at this stage of the red-hot league race.

IN TODAY'S GAME the Dons face a split T, with some nifty-running backs paced by Halfback Charley McDonald and Fullback Bull McKinney.

In last week's game with Mt. Diablo, top eleven, the Albany team came close to pulling an upset.

It led 20-12 at halftime, before being snowed under by Diablo's manpower, 39-20, in the second half.

Do you know it costs YOU OVER $2 for expenses when you drive through the Tunnel to shop.

SPORTS

Dons Trounce Alhambra 23-16

The final score was far from indicative of the game last Friday night when the Acalanes Dons racked up an inept Alhambra Bulldog eleven by 26-13.

The game, played under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field, saw the Acalanes club jumping to a 20-0 halftime lead and using reserves liberally throughout the second half, with the result that all 35 Varsity players saw action in one or more quarters of play.

THE DONS ROLLED up an impressive 318 yards on the ground and 104 in the air, for a total of 422 yards, as compared to a 189-yard total for the Bulldogs, who had 154 on the ground and 35 via the air route.

Most of Alhambra's yardage came late in the game when the Acalanes reserves had taken over.

The Dons came close to pay dirt on the first series of play when they took the ball on the 40-yard mark after Alhambra kicked out of bounds. They went to the four-yard line before being set back by a 15-yard holding penalty.

THE BALL REMAINED in Alhambra territory the rest of the quarter, with the Dons scoring with 10 seconds left in the quarter when block-buster Ray Williamson took off over tackle for a touchdown and came back with the same play to tally the conversion.

Midway in the second period, Williamson raced around the left side of the line for 52 yards, to set the stage for touchdown No. 2, which was culminated when end and Co-captain Bob Kinney snagged an eight-yard pass in the end zone.

A pass, Bart Ferro to Jim Larsen, was good, and the score stood at 14-0.

The tally went to 20-0 when the Dons went all the way the next time they got their hands on the ball.

THE TOUCHDOWN was set up when Quarterback Ferro reared back and tossed a pass good for 33 yards to Halfback Bob Carlson, who wound up on the one.

From there, John Champlin drove over tackle on the next play, to score.

The conversion try failed, and the score stayed at 20-0 when the half ended.

ALHAMBRA'S BIG moment came with the opening of the second half.

Jim Hart kicked off deep into Alhambra territory, only to have Alhambra's quarterback, Rose, scoop the ball up on the 11 and race 89 yards down the right sideline to tally standing up.

Charley Tourville raced around end to make point No. 7, and the score stood at 20-7 with 20 seconds gone in the second half.

THE DONS WERE aroused at this point, took the ensuing kick-off back eight yards and in eight plays went from their own 18 to Alhambra's 14 before losing the ball.

Alhambra fumbled after coming back to the 38.

That's all the Dons needed, as they took four plays to score, with Williamson cracking the left side of the line for four yards to count six just as the quarter ended. The conversion try failed.

WITH THE COUNT at 26-7, Don Reserves took over and gave a good account of themselves.

A fourth down desperation pass in the closing seconds gave Alhambra a touchdown. An attempted run through the center on the conversion try was smothered by the Don line.

THE WIN WAS the second in league play for the Dons and placed them in a tie with Mt. Diablo for league honors, each having a 2-0 record.

Highlight of the game, as far as Acalanes was concerned was the tight defensive play of the Dons and the running of the backs.

Williamson posted 160 yards on the ground, with 140 coming in the first half, for an 11-yard average per carry.

Dennis Busby and Richard Munn, halfbacks, had seven and six-yard averages, respectively, while Champlin, another halfback, came up with a five-yard average.

Ferro's pin-point passing to glue-fingered ends Kinney and Dennis Hollenbeck rounded out an attack that proved to be too much for the Bulldogs to handle.

ALHAMBRA'S HIGHLY touted Charley Tourville averaged three yards per carry.

Far Western To Be Held Here

Gene Marsh, Walnut Creek racing promoter, signed a contract last week to stage the 100-lap Far Western Dirt Track Championship midget race at Contra Costa Stadium.

The event has been scheduled for November 1, on the local oval.

The contract calls for a large guarantee which will attract visiting midget drivers from other associations.

In addition to the lucrative purse and the 100-lap trophy, the program will also decide the seasonal champion of the BCRA.

BCRA Hardtops To End Season

Winding up the 1953 season tonight, the BCRA hard tops will stage a 50-lap main event at Contra Costa Stadium.

The program will be highlighted by the presentation of the P-X Markets trophy to Bill Maher of Vallejo, the champion of the local track. Maher edged Keith Willis of Hayward by 14 points to win the annual trophy.

Favorites to win the season's final feature are Bob Caswell of Walnut Creek, Lee Humphers of Richmond, Max Brandt of Concord, Rae Roberts of Oakland, Maher and Willis.

Don Eleven's Offense Keeps Improving At Each Game – May It Go On Doing So!

By ERWIN MATTSON

IT'S INTERESTING TO STUDY the statistics of each of the Dons' football games and to note that the offense has picked up each weekend.

The Dons' leading ground gainer to date is booming Ray Williamson, who has led the team in each outing. He had his best night yet in the game against Alhambra last Friday, when he rambled 160 yards on 15 tries for an 11-yard average.

Dennis Busby, right half, had 54 yards on eight tries, for close to a seven-yard average.

Richie Munn, diminutive speedster at left half, scrambled 85 yards on 13 tries, for a better than six-yard average, while John Champlin put together 19 yards on four tries for an approximate five yards per carry, to round out a devastating ground game which, coupled with a fine air game, tore the Alhambra defense to shreds.

THE MAIN INCREASE in offense has been due to better downfield blocking, which has cleared the way once the Don backs have cleared the line of scrimmage.

Downfield is a difficult thing to get, as most players have a tendency to loaf as they go down time after time and nothing happens.

More times than not a player fails to break into the open, and the difficult thing is to keep going play after play.

Drills this week have emphasized downfield blocking in the hope that the running game will produce some breakaway plays.

ONE OF THE LATEST projects being considered at Acalanes is the addition of more lights.

Places for the lights were provided in original plans, and chances are that the addition will be made in the near future.

FROM TIME TO time we get word from ex-Don athletes. One of the most appreciated was received last week from last year's All-County Halfback Roger Owen, who is currently at College of the Pacific, where he is enrolled as a freshman and is one of the leading candidates for the frosh team.

Roger wrote a note of congratulations to the Dons for their victory over the Pittsburg Pirates and said the win was doubly good to hear about inasmuch as his roommate was Pitt's student body president last year.

He reported that Buzz Williams and Roger Linn are seeing plenty of duty on the COP Varsity and both will be lettermen.

THE ACALANES CLASS of 1943 held a reunion at the Orinda Country Club last Saturday night.

Man interesting tales were told, including numerous football stories, some of which have become legendary at Acalanes.

Some of the boys recalled the time when the Dons upset Diablo 3-0 in their opening Varsity game 10 years ago.

The win came about when the All American quarterback Stub Van Brocklin, kicked a 35-yard field goal from a 45-degree angle, with only a minute left on the clock.

The boys recalled when there wasn't a blade of grass on the field and some 50 players used the one and only shower available in the coaches' locker room.

Another tale was told of the Dons' startling upset of Antioch, 19-6, with the two tackles, George Talifero and Bob Walker, contributing all three touchdowns to the winning cause.

One of the outstanding players of the class of '43 was Carl Danielson, who at 125 pounds was one of Acalanes' all-time greats as a center and linebacker.

In fact, he rated as the county's best, making All-County center in '42 and '43.

A terrific competitive player, he was a sure tackler who seldom missed.

Don Varsity Has Bye Next Week

The Acalanes Varsity draws a bye next week and returns to grid activity October 30, when they tangle in an afternoon game with the John Swett Indians at Crockett.

Varsity league games on tap next Friday are Diablo at Antioch, Pittsburg at Crockett and Alhambra at Albany.

In Junior Varsity games next Thursday at 3:30 p.m., Acalanes figures to roll over Alhambra at Martinez, Las Lomas is a favorite to topple Pittsburg at Pittsburg and Diablo figures to rack up Albany at Albany.

Pleasant Hill's J. V.'s draw a bye next week.

Do you know it costs YOU OVER $2 for expenses when you drive through the Tunnel to shop.

Knights Snuff Antioch, 51-0

Las Lomas' Knights had little more than a workout last Friday afternoon when they waxed the Antioch Junior Varsity, 51-0.

The game, played at Las Lomas, had originally been scheduled for the previous day but failed to materialize on that day because the Antioch bus broke down.

Antioch's mistake was getting it fixed and showing up the next day, as the charges of Coach George Deklotz were feeling their oats and ran through gaping holes, to score at will.

It was Las Lomas' all the way. The Knights played everyone but the yell-leaders and still scored.

Vikings Tackle Napa Tonight

Coach Hal Buffa and his rampaging East Contra Costa Junior College Vikings will attempt to make it five straight when they tackle Napa J.C. on the Chiefs' home turf tonight.

Two records were written into the 1953 chapter of East CCJC's short grid history at Concord last week when the Vikings crushed the hapless College of Marin Tars, 64-7, in the first Coast Conference clash of the season.

That score wiped out the old mark of 47-7 over Marin last year. At the same time, the Vikings' sensational back, L. C. (Jet) Joyner, broke away for a brilliant 99-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter for another new mark in the books.

Contra Costa ran up 401 yards on the ground, and its stout defense, sparked by guard Norm Walker of Concord, end Bob Borghesani, ex-Acalanes great; center-linebacker Anthony Pellegrini, tackle Frank Lombardo and end Martin DiMercurio, held the Tars to a minus four yards on the ground.

Your Garden

When Shopping for Topsoil, Be Certain You Know 'Black Dirt' Key Qualities

By BERT WRIGHT

NO BUYER IS MORE AT THE MERCY of the seller than the home gardener in the market for topsoil, or "black dirt," as it is called in some areas.

Most folks just have insufficient knowledge of what constitutes good topsoil when they buy it by the cubic yard.

About the only criterion of quality used by the majority is the color of the soil. They reason that the darker the soil, the more productive it is.

Sadly enough, color alone means little, but unscrupulous peddlers have taken advantage of the myth and have foistetd off material that was dark-colored, true, but, due to its poor physical condition, would grow practically nothing.

To help the "buyer beware," here are some points to remember when you must purchase topsoil:

1. SHOP AROUND.

Look before buying, instead of just telephoning in your order.

2. FEEL THE SOIL. Soil structure is far less easily improved than is soil fertility.

If small clods of dry soil, breaking easily when squeezed between the fingers, do not crumble, don't buy.

3. IF THE SOIL is black, is it also light and fluffy?

Don't buy this either — it's muck and is 90 per cent organic matter.

To sum up, choose a soil that is easy to work, rather than one you think is "rich."

BULBS GIVE COLOR

If you seek color that repeats itself year after year in your garden, then bulbs belong high on your planting list. And, among both spring and summer blooming bulbs, many actually improve with age.

Ranunculus Is Popular Bulb

When selecting spring bulbs, a happy choice woud be to secure those that will provide blossoms that are just as long-lasting and bright in a floral arrangement as they are in the garden.

Many gardeners say that magnificent double and single blossoming ranunculus fill the bill in this regard admirably.

PLANTED DURING September and October in a well drained, partially shaded, sandy loam flower bed, rannunculus will develop tall stems topped by proportioned blossoms.

It will flower next April in white, rose, crimson, scarlet, orange and pure yellow.

The tiny tuber, which resembles a many-tinted crab, should be planted with its claws face down in a 4 to 5 inch pocket.

A little bone meal or manure lightly mixed below the tuber is always advantageous.

HOUSE PLANT HOBBY

House plants, which will prove decorative additions to your home, adding color and greenery to window sills, bare corners and tables, can provide you with an interesting winter hobby—"indoor gardening."

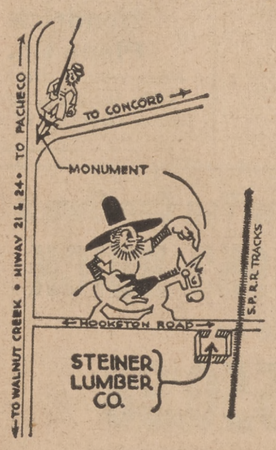

FAIRY PRIMROSE

Constant color throughout the winter season is the reward for planting fairy primrose or primula malacoides now. This dainty plant literally blooms itself to death when a garden is in its greatest need of color.

Steps in the Right Direction

No one was surprised last week when major changes in the county planning set-up were suggested to the Board of Supervisors by the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association.

If the much discussed "climate for planning" has materialied in Martinez, it is obscured in fog. The question still remains, "Is Contra Costa County prepared to make good use of the $750,000 budgeted for master planning?"

Two things are certain. In the first place, the Planning Commission and Planning Consultant Charles Diggs are not able to give their attention to master planning. Secondly, there is no top man directing county planning activity with a firm hand.

The commission spends endless hours dealing with the small-sized problems of planning, i.e. land use permits for side-yards, set-backs, building alterations and lot divisions.

Diggs devotes most of his time to the same trivial matters, particularly those involved in controversy.

While this situation continues, neither the commission or its consultant can find time or energy for the considerations of master planning, and thus put the $750,000 budget to the best use.

Realizing this, the commission itself has devised a plan to establish an auxiliary Zoning Adjustment Board to take over the routine problems, the small-sized everyday requests.

Last week the Taxpayers Association gave this plan its support and so informed the Board of Supervisors. In so doing, the association expressed its conviction that master planning is not a job for the Planning Commission to do in its spare time.

At the same time, the Taxpayers Association asked that a Director of Planning be appointed. For this job, they recommended that the very best man available be hired. They asked that a board of recognized planners be set up to review all applicants for what could be the most important position in the county.

Their recommendations are excellent. They represent solutions to difficulties which must be cleared up if Contra Costa County is to have a master plan worth the name.

Right now the master planning staff is gathering data on where we live, where we work, how much we pay in taxes, how much we pay for utilities, for schools, for recreation. When this research is complete, the data collected will be the basis for an overall summary of what Contra Costa County is and wants to be.

Out of this summary, in turn, will come a statement of the aims and objectives of the master plature.

But . . . summarizing the data and arriving at a realistic statement of objectives which will be the vital core of a master plan requires the full attention of the Planning Commission and the technical assistance of the most experienced planner available.

If the Planning Commission has no time for the job, and if there is no top rate Director of Planning on hand, we can expect very little.

And now is the time for seeing to it that the job will be done. The Taxpayers Association and the Planning Commission know this and have recommended solutions.

For $750,000 the residents of Contra Costa County can expect and demand a master plan of real stature. Right now they can insist that the planning department be straightened out so that such a plan is possible.

Forum to Discuss Family Curriculum

Parents and civic leaders, as well as education experts, will have their say as to what should be taught in family life education courses in Contra Costa County high schools at a conference to be held November 7 at Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek.

Sponsored by the Contra Costa County Social Studies Committee, an organization of high school and junior college teachers, the conference will be open to all interested persons.

Featured speaker at the morning session, beginning at 8, will be Dr. Judson Landis of the University of California, an expert on family life education. He will talk on what content is desirable for family life education courses in the high schools of Contra Costa County.

Following Dr. Landis' address, the meeting will divide into discussion groups, each with an outstanding leader from the education field.

At the afternoon session a panel of speakers will continue the discussion. On the panel will be: a parent, PTA representative, a judge, a physician, a clergyman, a teacher, and Dr. Landis. Reed Buffington, dean of instruction, East Contra Costa Junior College, will act as moderator.

Agencies cooperating with the social studies committee in arranging the conference are the County Superintendent's Office, Contra Costa County Health Department, Contra Costa County Mental Health Association and PTA's.

Members of the committee are: Miss Virginia Mabey, Pittsburg High School; Miss Theresia Nelson and, Mrs. Ardis Burton, John Swett Union High School; Mrs. Ruth Dyer and William H. Ross, Acalanes High School; Ms. Norma White, Mt. Diablo High School; Rudolph Kundson, Pleasant Hill High School.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Woodward, Antioch High School; Gordon C. Thomas, San Ramon Valley Union High School; Donald B. Inman, Liberty Union High School; Carman Dougan, Alhambra Union High School; James Norton, Las Lomas High School; Reed Buffington, East Contra Costa Junior College and Gardner Swenson, coordinator of secondary education, County Superintendent's Office.

Miller Announces Candidacy for County Sheriff

A former County Sheriff will oppose present Sheriff James Long in elections next June if Long chooses to run again.

John A. Miller, 60, Sheriff from 1935 to 1943, announced Tuesday that he intends to run again for the office. Miller ran and was defeated by Long in the last election.

Miller, a native of Livermore, has served as Richmond postmaster and deputy collector of internal revenue.

He said that he has been carrying on a house to house campaign and hopes to call at every home in the county before voting.

Miller lives at 1801 Pine Street in Martinez and recently returned from a hunting trip in Kenya Colony, Africa, where he headed a party attached ot the County Sheriff's Posse.

THE FIFTH ANNUAL ART SHOW, sponsored by Outdoor Art Shows, Inc., attracted hundreds — both youth and adults — when it was held recently in the Jellett Building in Lafayette. This large group at the exhibit is from the Lafayette School. The students were accompanied by Robert Trask, teacher (in foreground, back to camera).

What They Say . . .

Do You Want a Monorail System Here?

With the plans for the Sacramento Northern Railroad tracks still uncertain, and with our highway system progressing far too slowly to bear the necessary traffic, a for mof rapid transit is a controversial question.

This week The SUN telephoned local residents to ask them, "Do you think a monorail commuting system would be a good thing for our area?"

And here are some of the comments.

MRS. V. D. RICHARDS of 103 Patterson Boulevard in Pleasant Hill said, "Yes, I imagine that would be a good thing for this area. Traffic seems to be crowded, and this area seems to be building up."

MRS. DEL R. FAGER, 24 Orchard Road, Orinda — "We don't commute, but I suppose it would be a good thing. I haven't thought too much about it."

"I think the bus system is all right, but if a Monorail were faster it would be a good thing," commented Mrs. Russell A. Fairbairn, of Sunnybrook Drive, Lafayette.

Mrs. R. P. Samuels of 133 Springsdale Road in Walnut Creek answered, "I think something would be good. Having nothing but the (deleted), Oh, I didn't mean to mention it by name — but we need something out here."

MRS. M. B. FALKELL, 3406 Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette, said, "I think everybody is moving too fast these days as is. I'm against anything which would speed up the pace of living, That's the trouble."

Mrs. Richard H. Farmer, 9 Washinton Lane, Orinda, said, "I certainly think the area needs something. Bus service is good, but they don't run frequently enough. I think as far as transportation is concerned it would be a good thing, and if it were faster than bus service I am for it."

MRS. R. DALE MAYFIELD of 2139 Diablo Drive in Walnut Creek, said, "I think that anything that would improve over the traffic situation in the area would be an improvement. If monorail will do it then Im for it."

William B. Wilson of 515 Masefield Drive in Pleasant Hill answered, "No. We used to have an expert down where I work . . . and he didn't think the load carrying capacity would be enough to justify the expense."

Watch Out For Mosquitoes Now

Now is the time to begin controlling mosquitoes, according to Ernest Campbell, manager of Contra Costa Mosquito Abatement District No. 1.

He recommends the following:

"Wading pools which are not in use should be completely emptied of all water. Watch for wrigglers in swim pools and if necessary, spray lightly with kerosene, DDT or fly spray, etc., and do not use for 24 hours.

"The Contra Costa Mosquito Abatement District wishes to warn residents of the danger of such places.

"If in doubt, contact your Mosquito Abatment District. Phone Martinez 206 or write P.O. Box 447."

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

The enclosed letter is a fine example of civic spirit. Here's the story:

During the morning rush hour into Oakland, we'd notice one or more trucks each day, carrying big loads of tomato paste from the Walnut Creek Canning Company.

After crawling along behind one of these trucks one morning, I sat down and wrote the cannery asking if there was any practical way that they could be re-scheduled to hit Mt. Diablo Boulevard at some other hour.

His answer is enclosed. I think he deserves congratulations for going to the trouble to change his own operations to accomodate the rest of us.

Sincerely,
NAME WITHHELD ON REQUEST

(Editor's note: The letter referred to above is printed below.)

Dear Mr. ——,

I would like to thank you very much for your letter I must confess that during the tomato season, we do not put much thought to the problem of the commuter.

As a result of your letter, we are now scheduling our trucks out of our plant at 6 a.m. instead of 7 a.m. I sincerely hope that this will eliminate the inconviences caused you and your fellow commuters.

We are packing under the brand names of YUKERY and LA DIVA so please do not give us credit for the activities of some of the other canners in this vicinity.

If you should have any further suggestions for ways that we might help alleviate this traffic condition, please contact us again, for we are not very close to the problem.

Yours Very truly,
Walnut Creek Canning Co.
s/Frank D. Upchurch Jr.

Dear Editor:

I was interested in a letter printed in the October 2 Lafayette SUN which protested the proposed incorporation of Happy Valley.

I wish that its writer had signed his name because I think that the residents of this area should know whom to contact in order to hear both sides of this question.

We moved to Happy Valley just two months ago, which may explain why we were not invited to the meeting at which the proposal was brought up; in fact it was only through reading The SUN that we learned of the existence of the Happy Valley Improvement Association.

My feeling is that the movement to incorporate is being pushed along at a pretty fast clip; certainly we newcomers are not being given much time to consider the pros and cons.

I was also a little disturbed by the reference made to "Name Withheld's" letter in a column called "Patter on the Party Line" in the October 9 SUN; its author referred to him as a "poison-penner," which is rather strong language for some not unreasonable opposing arguments.

Our only source of information on the whole question has been the reports of the meetings in The SUN, and these of course have given just one side of the picture. To arrive at a fair decision requires a good deal more information; for instance, is it not possible for the Happy Valley area to have its own zoning regulations and still remain part of Lafayette?

Would the loss of revenue from Happy Valley taxes be a seriouis one to the surrounding area, and if so, would not the results be considered deplorable by Happy Valleyites for selfish as well as unselfish reasons?

I should be very grateful if The SUN would print an article or two giving more information on both sides of the question, and if there are old-timers in the area who are opposed to incorporation, I wish they would also make their views and reasons known.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Dow Votow,
3634 Happy Valley Road.

Under The Sun

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

A couple of fellows popped into my office the other day from Oakland. Their hour-long conversation can be boiled down to this: "Why in the heck is The SUN sabotaging United Crusade?"

So today let's clarify The SUN's position.

We are not opposed to United Crusade. In fact, we think it is a wonderful idea. Four years ago I wrote an editorial asking for relief from the many, many drives and mentioned the united campaign principle which originated in Detroit.

Last year United Crusade was established in the East Bay. No funds were to be allocated to this area's major youth and welfare groups. A small amount was offered to Scouting and Red Cross but this was rejected because it was far from sufficient to meet local requirements.)

If our commuting residents had allocated all their donations to United Crusade last year, it is possible that our local organizations would have been put out of business. I refer to Boy and Girl Scouts, Red Cross, Cancer Association, T.B. Association, Heart Association, Therapy Center, Crippled Children's Society and Salvation Army.

The SUN was the only paper in the county to print these facts. And our wonderful people gave to United Crusade but also donated generously to our important groups.

Crusade and time move on

Now let's discuss this year.

A committee of civic-minded residents organized to establish United Crusade here We were to become a part of the East Bay Crusade.

Peter Howard, Phil Gustafson, Duncan Knudsen, Ford Tussing, William Penn Mott, Harvey Lyon, John Nejedly, Fred Elkinton (to name a few) devoted hours and days to meetings. The Mt. Diablo Advisory Board to the East Bay United Crusade was formed. But after lengthy negotiations, only one major group, Boy Scouts, would join.

Red Cross, Girl Scouts and the others named above presented many reasons for not joining. Each of these groups will be, or already is, conducting a drive this year.

Meanwhile, newer local groups joined hands with the Crusade — Camp Fire Girls, Y.M.C.A., U.S.O., Shadelands School for Cerebral Palsied Children, White Cane, Contra Costa Branch of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Clinic. These are all very worthy organzations. But none, except Boy Scouts, has ever conducted major drives here.

In addition, there are 38 organizations in the East Bay which serve our people and deserve our support. Children's Hospital is a good example.

This was the situation when the Crusade started several weeks ago.

A mighty tough problem

And so each resident is faced with the problem of where and how much to give. Every day we receive calls from local men at work in Berkeley, Oakland or S.F. They are confused. Some have been told they will NOT be expected to give another penny at their homes. Yet these men have a feeling of responsibility to their community.

The SUN's primary alligence and responsibility is to its community. The question today is not whether the organiations which refused to join the Crusade are right or wrong.

The question today is not whether the organizations which refused to this coming year . . . and do we want to aid Red Criss, Cancer Association, Heart, Crippled Children and so on?"

We have always gone on the assumption that our readers are intelligent people, who can understand facts and decide the merits themselves. Thus, it was our obligation to tell them the exact status of fund drives in this area.

And we repeat our stand of two weeks ago, printed on the front page: "The most logical solution seems to be to balance donations between the United Crusade and the other organiations which will be conducting their own fund-raising campaigns."

What about next year?

I believe (or hope) that most of our local groups will join in organizing a Diablo Chapter of United Crusade and affiliate with the Bay Area Federation, or perhaps an East County Chapter. Marin and San Mateo Counties and City of Richmond have done this.

In this way, the principle of the Crusade will be fulfilled.

Our hat is off

Yes, today we say hats off to:

All the many, many people who put together the best Walnut Festival in its history.

Boone Robinson for his good work on the County Planning League and his election as its president.

Bill Somerton, also of the Planning League and president of the Lafayette Improvement Association, for doing a seven-nights-per-week job of community service.

Everett Gale and all the folks who slave so hard on the fine program of the Pleasant Hill Recreation District.

Three easy ways to better living.. with better lighting

Surveys show most homes are under-lighted! But it's easy to enjoy brighter, better living—with lighting that picks up the color of your furnishings—guards precious eyesight—perks up your spirits.

1. Fill-up the empty sockets. Good lighting is inexpensive eye-insurance, for light bulbs cost so little—and electricity is cheap in California.

2. Replace burned-out bulbs and keep a supply of spares on hand. New, smaller 150 and 100-watt bulbs now fit almost any fixture.

3. Use bright-enough bulbs. 100-150 watts . . . especially in your kitchen fixtures, study lamps, hallways, garage, and bathrooms.

Free of extra cost...a 150-watt bulb

. . . free when you buy five 100-watt bulbs! Just present the coupon sent with your September or October

P. G. and E. bill at any store displaying this sign. Treat your family to Better Light for Better Sight—today!
